September, 30 - October, 1 2022

Introductory Talks by...

Sven Bernecker (University of Cologne)

Cord Friebe (University of Siegen)

Christoph Horn (University of Bonn)

Corinna Mieth (University of Bochum)

Rainer Schäfer (University of Bonn)

Dieter Schönecker (University of Siegen)

The newly founded Digitales Kant-Zentrum NRW is happy to announce its Opening Workshop. The conference will address the following six topics:

- Kant on Migration
- Kant on International Peace Order
- Kant on Poverty and Climate Change
- Kant on Expertise in a Democratic Society
- Kant on Cognitive Sciences
- Kant on the Human Right to Education

We welcome proposals for academic contributions that speak to one of the six topics. Interested speakers should submit a 500-words abstract (prepared for blind review) to kant-nrw@uni-siegen.de by 15th of July. Please make clear to which of the six topics the abstract is assigned. Each speaker will have 30 min. for presentation, followed by 15 min. of questions and discussion.

Papers are welcome both in English and in German. During the conference, passive knowledge of German is required.

Selected submissions will be confirmed by end of July. Both register and attendance are free. Accommodation as well as travel expenses will be covered for all speakers.

Organizer: Prof. Dr. Cord Friebe (University of Siegen)
