

Phenomenology and Social Ontology: Contest or Convergence?

13.-14. October 2022, University of Potsdam

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| Sara Heinämaa (Jyväskylä): | Exceptional Relations: Husserl's Account of the Normality of Human Life |
| Hans-Peter Krüger (Potsdam): | Humans are Playing into and with Social Roles in their Shared World |
| David Lauer (Kiel): | Social Ontology and Phenomenology of the Second Person |
| Gustav Melichar (Heidelberg): | Towards a Phenomenology of Trust |
| Hans Bernhard Schmid (Vienna): | Phenomenology, Existential Philosophy, and Fundamental Social Ontology |
| David Schweikard (Flensburg): | What do we study when we study the Social World? |
| Thomas J. Spiegel (Potsdam): | Phenomenology, Naturalism, and the Argument for Normativity |
| Christian Tewes (Mannheim): | Embodied Experience and Social Constructivism in Dementia Research: A Phenomenological Perspective |
| Linas Tranas (Cologne): | Shared Emotions Is (Mainly) a Phenomenological Question |

Please Register with:

Thomas J. Spiegel thomas.j.spiegel@gmail.com
Gustav Melichar gustav.melichar@gmail.com

With generous support of Deutsche Gesellschaft für Philosophie

Phenomenology and Social Ontology: Contest or Convergence?

Venue: Universität Potsdam
Am neuen Palais 10
14469 Potsdam

Room: 1.08.0.58 (Haus 8)

Lageplan: https://www.uni-potsdam.de/fileadmin/projects/zim/files/lageplaene_uni/Lageplan_Legende_A NP.PDF

Day 1, Thursday, Oct. 13:

09:00 - 09:15	Introduction
09:15 - 10:15	Hans Bernhard Schmid: Phenomenology, Existential Philosophy, and Fundamental Social Ontology
10:15 - 10:30	Coffee Break
10:30 - 11:30	Thomas J. Spiegel: Phenomenology, Naturalism, and the Argument for Normativity
11:30 - 13:00	Lunch Break
13:00 - 14:00	David Schweikard: What do we study when we study the Social World?
14:00 - 14:15	Coffee Break
14:15 - 15:15	Linas Tranas: Shared Emotions Is (Mainly) a Phenomenological Question
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 - 16:30	Hans-Peter Krüger: Humans are Playing into and with Social Roles in their Shared World

Day 2, Friday, Oct. 14:

09:00 - 10:00	Sara Heinämaa: Exceptional Relations: Husserl's Account of the Normality of Human Life
10:00 - 10:15	Coffee Break
10:15 - 11:15	David Lauer: Social Ontology and Phenomenology of the Second Person
11:15 - 12:45	Lunch Break
12:45 - 13:45	Gustav Melichar: Towards a Phenomenology of Trust
13:45 - 14:00	Coffee Break
14:00 - 15:00	Christian Tewes: Embodied Experience and Social Constructivism in Dementia Research: A Phenomenological Perspective